Mexican War History Suppressed by Santa Anna

1. ALCARAZ, RAMON; ET AL. Apuntes para la Historia de la Guerra entre México y los Estados- Unidos. México: Tipografía de Manuel Payno, 1848. v, [1], [1], 401, [3] pp. Illus. with 28 lithographic maps and plates (14 folding maps; 14 portrait plates, and one folding table. Sm. 4to. Contemporary quarter morocco over marbled boards, four raised bands, gilt title on spine. Palau 14138. Sabin 48281. Howes A105 (b). Streeter I:279. Haferkorn 8. Eberstadt 114-733. Tutorow 3254.

$4000

First edition. With all maps and plates. "Extremely rare," Sabin. Fifteen authors (listed at the conclusion of the introduction) provide the Mexican view of the war with battle plans. Originally published in installments in late 1848 to early 1849, then the remaining issues were bound, which may explain the lower plate or map counts in most other copies currently offered as well as those listed by Eberstadt, Sabin, Palau, Howes. Severely criticizes the loss of nearly 55% of Mexican territory by General Santa Anna who had the work suppressed, copies in private hands burned, and the authors imprisoned (facsimiles of Santa Anna's confiscation decrees laid in loose). "They [the authors] wanted to understand why Mexico had lost the war and the nation's territory. They wanted to present this study in the form of "Apuntes" so that the information could serve as an example of how to preserve the nation in the future. That is the great achievement of this work. That the writers hoped it would teach other generations about the critical moments Mexico had experienced, about what had led to them, and how we could correct our course in order to preserve what remained of the territory and the nation. Later they became politicians and worked together with the generation led by Benito Juárez. Their experiences during the U.S.-Mexican war helped them when they had to face the French invasion in the 1860s. Eventually they did carry out the work of consolidating Mexico," (from "'Apuntes' and the Lessons of History:" A Conversation with Jesús Velasco-Márquez, Instituto Tecnológico Autónomo de México). An English translation, 'The Other Side, or, Notes for the history of the war between Mexico and the United States', was published in New York and London, 1850. "The best Mexican source on the conduct of the war" Windsor, Narrative and Critical History of America, VII, p. 443. Provenance: Nelson Osgood Rhoades (bookplate). About very good, small chip to foot of spine, edges worn, armorial bookplate on free front endpaper, scattered foxing, tide line on top fore margin of first dozen or so leaves, a few leaves with old reinforcement repairs on top inner edge affecting a few words, one map with a few repairs affecting the neat line at one corner and blank areas, one leaf with two wear holes to lower margin, otherwise quite solid. [42378]

Plano de la Batalla de Palo-Alto

2. AMUNÁTEGUI, MIGUEL LUIS. La Alborada Poética en Chile después del 18 de setiembre de 1810. Santiago de Chile: Imprenta Nacional, 1892. 568 pp. 8vo. Quarter cloth over marbled boards, red morocco spine label. Palau 11545.

$150

Edición Oficial. Chilean poetry after independence. Discusses Camilo Henríquez (1769-1825); Bernardo de Vera y Pintado (1780-1827); Ventura Blanco Encalada (1782-1856); and Mercedes Marín de Solar (1804 -1866). A very good copy, bottom edge worn, some darkening of spine, bookseller's stamp on title, leaves browning, one leaf with chip to margin. [41206]

A NATURAL HISTORY OF SAO PAULO

3. ANCHIETA, JOSEPH DE. [QUEIROZ, FERNÃO DE]. ACADEMIA DAS CIÊNCIAS DE LISBOA. "Epistola quamplurimarum rerum naturalium, quae S. Vincentii (nunc S. Pauli) provinciam incolunt, sistens descriptionem" [in] Collecção de noticias para a historia e geografia das nações ultramarinas ... tomo I, Num. I. II. e III. Lisboa: Na Typ. da Academia, 1812 vi, 178 pp. 8vo. Modern three quarter morocco over marbled boards. Sabin 14362. Leclerc 126. Innocencio V.12: 7890. Innocencio V.2 (p.87-88): 353. Rodrigues 658. Borba de Moraes 164. Greenlee 524.

First edition. The Spanish Jesuit missionary José de Anchieta (1534 -1597) was one of the founders of São Paulo (1554) and Rio de Janeiro a decade later. Best known for his book

"The Art of Grammar" on the indigenous Old Tupi language, he was also an accomplished naturalist as revealed in this work (Communication of the very many natural things which dwell in the province of St. Vincent [now São Paulo] systematically described) which was first published in 1799 (Olisipone). Also includes 1. Breve relação dos escrituras dos gentios da India Oriental, e dos seus costumes (pp. 1-59) [A short account of the gentios of India and their customs]; 2. Noticia summaria do gentilismo da Asia (pp. 61-126) [A short account of paganism in Asia]; These have been attributed by Francisco Maria Esteves Pereria to Fernão de Queiroz, a 17th c. Jesuit, whose translation of the Bhagvat-Gita was only first published in 1922, and may have been the first translation into a western language of that work. Esteves Pereria considered it a sequel to the two pieces contained in this volume (see Ethel Pope: India in Portuguese Literature, (Bastorá: Tipografia Rangel, 1937; pp. 166-168). Would eventually run to seven volumes published over 30 years. Quite uncommon. Last partial or complete set at auction in 1948. Near fine, small period stamp on title page. [38511]

4. ANTUÑA, ENRIQUE M. Arte e Historica. Cuadros Históricos de Episodios de la Independencia pintados por Diógenes Héquet. Montevideo: Librería y Papelería del Ateneo, Sierra y Antuña, 1896. 55 pp. 12mo. Disbound.

First edition. Juan Bautista Diogenes Hequet (1866-1902) was a Uruguayan painter and lithographer who produced an historical series of paintings entitled 'National Episodes' on the Uruguayan War for Independence. This work is a textual description of ten of the paintings. Rare. Palau 13341 notes only a related item by the same author. OCLC lists a single copy at Berkeley. Not in BN Uruguay or any other Latin American Library catalogues. Removed from a larger volume, closed tear to inner margin of first few leaves, bookseller's stamp on title page, otherwise contents about very good. [39898]

First edition. I. Declaración del Excmo. Señor Presidente de la Nación Argentina, General Juan Perón. II. Nota la los Gobiernos de América y a la Santa Sede, de S.E. el señor Ministro de Relaciones Exteriores y Culto, doctor Juan Atilio Bramuglia (a seprate printing of this section was published earlier in 1947). III. Proyecto de paz interior y exterior, propuesto a las Naciones de América por la República Argentina. During the first period of Perón's presidency (1946-1949), a major policy was to improve the international image of Argentina abroad. Perón claimed a "Third Position" of positive neutrality in the cold war which had developed between the western powers and Russia. The present volume contains three separate titles toward the goals of economic cooperation and world peace. Part I is the "Declaration" of Perón, placing the position of Argentina and its goals before the world of nations. Part II is a "Nota" addressed by the Minister of Foreign Affairs and Worship, Dr. Juan Atilio Bramuglia, to the nations stating the position of Argentina to achieve both internal and international peace. Part III is a proposal made by the Argentine Nation to those of America for international peace. This "Proyecto" was published here in Spanish, Portuguese, English, French, Italian and Russian. A very good copy, tear at staple throughout, leaves browned, new binding. [35027]

6. [ARIZONA AND SONORA]. TRONCOSO, FRANCISCO P. [DE PAULA] AND MENA, FRANCISCO Z. Las guerras con las tribus Yaqui Mayo del estado de Sonora. Obra mandada formar por la Secretaría de Guerra y Marina en 28 de mayo de 1902, al general de brigada, Francisco P. Troncoso. Comprende: desde el 22 de diciembre 1529, hasta el 31 de diciembre de 1902. Imprensa por orden del Secretario de Guerra y Marina, general de división, Francesco Z. Mena. México: Tip. del Departamento de Estado Mayor, 1905. 342, ix pp. + map. Illus. with 1 b/w folding map. 4to. Quarter morocco over marbled boards, 4 raised bands, gilt title. Palau 341328. Eberstadt 128-43.

First edition. Divided into four parts: 1. The time of the conquest from 1529 until 1610; 2. The colonial period, 1611-1822; 3. From Independence until the expulsion of the French troops; 4. The last third of the 19th century. At the time this book was prepared, the Yaquis had been at war with the various governments for nearly four centuries with only occasional periods of peace. Republished in 1977 as part of the series "Clásicos de la antropología mexicana." Provenance: Joseph M. Gleason (bookplate), who helped bring the Lima collection to the Catholic Univ. of America. A very good copy, wear to spine head, extremely faint accession numbers at foot of spine, scuffed boards, owner's bookplate on front pastedown, owner's stamp on half-title, a few small repairs to map on verso, contents clean and tight. [41542]

7. ARTEAGA ALEMPARTE, JUSTO. El Charco. Santiago: Imprenta de la Libertad, 1871. 32 pp. 16mo. Later marbled paper wrappers. Briseño, Estadística bibliográfica de la literatura chilena p. 363 (46).

First edition. Political pamphlet by Justo Arteaga Alemparte (1834 -1882), journalist, pamphleteer, and founder of La Semana and La Libertad. A very good copy with light soiling on title, a few leaves creased. [39617]

8. [ARZANS DE ORSUA Y VELA, BARTOLOME]. MNEZ. [MARTÍNEZ] Y VELA, BARTOLOMÉ. Anales de la villa imperial de Potosí. [Paris]: [A. Franck (F. Vieweg)], [1872]. [283]-490, [1] pp. 8vo. Cloth. Palau 23085.

First edition thus. Extracted from "Archivo boliviano. Colección de documentos relativos a la historia de Bolivia, durante la época colonial, con un catálogo de obras impresas y de manuscritos, que tratan de esa parte de la América Meridional," Tomo 1, by Vicente de Ballivián y Rojas, who attributed the work to Martínez y Vela. An important work on an important city of the Spanish Empire in America. A very good copy, removed from a larger volume, chipped corner and owner's stamp on half-title, occasional soiled spot, a few small faint dampstains. [42133]

AN IMPORTANT NATURAL HISTORY OF PARAGUAY

9. AZARA, FÉLIX DE. Essais sur l'histoire naturelle des quadrupèdes de la province du Paraguay. L.E. Moreau-Saint-Méry, trans. Paris: C. Pougens, 1801. lxxx, 352 pp.; 499 pp. 8vo. Modern quarter brown cloth over marbled boards, brown morocco spine labels. Sabin 2537. Palau 20971. Nissen, ZBI 175. Wood: p. 214.

$900

First edition. "One of the most important early treatises on South American zoology by a famous naturalist," (Wood, Introduction to the Literature of Vertebrate Zoology, p. 214). Don Felix de Azara (1746-1811) first traveled to South America as a Spanish army officer. This is the first edition as the original Spanish edition did not appear until a year later. Provenance: Swann NY Hist. Soc. Sale 1978, lot 523. Very good untrimmed copies, recent binding with new endpapers, half titles repaired, institutional stamps on half titles and titles, last seven leaves of Vol. I in facsimile on matching period paper. A handsome set. [39007]

THE FIRST WORK IN CUBA TO UNSEAT COLUMBUS' PRIORITY

10. BACHILLER Y MORALES, ANTONIO. Antigüedades Americanas. Noticias que tuvieron los Europeos de la América Antes del descubrimiento de C. Colon. Habana: Oficina del Faro Industrial, 1845. 133, [3] pp., plate. Illus. with 1 folding map and in text engravings. 8vo. Later half marbled calf over brown cloth boards, four raised bands, red and brown morocco spine labels titled in gilt, decorative endpapers, original wrappers bound in. Palau 21633. Sabin 2607. Trelles III, p.80. Field 1089. Pilling: Proof Sheets 201a.

First edition. Folding engraved map of "Los descubrimientos de los escandinavos en America" (The discoveries of the Norsemen in America). Bachiller y Morales reviews the theories of the Scandinavians reaching America well before Columbus. It was the first work of its kind in Cuba. "Esta obra es la primera en su clase que ha visto la luz pública en Cuba. Contiene datos preciosísimos sobre los descubrimientos efectuados en la América anterior á Colon en el órden siguiente: Ojeada sobre los viajes á América de los antiguos Escandinavos; Memoria sobre las antigüedades americanas en que el autor da una noticia del resultado de los trabajos de la Sociedad de Anticuarios del Norte, residentes en Capenhague hasta el año 1844, reuniendo en un solo discurso los que la tradición europea y arábica conservaba sobre América, antes del descubrimiento de Colon, y cuanto sobre este asunto ocurra observar al autor de este escrito. Para esto el autor entre otras obras que ha ojeado, ha hecho un resumen y traducción de la Memoria sobre el descubrimiento de América en el siglo X por Carlos O. Rafn, segunda edición hecha en Copenhague en 1843," (Andrés Poey, zoologist and geographer). No other copies located at auction in the last half century. A very good mostly unopened (uncut) copy with spine rubbed, small tears and chips to original wrappers, occasional foxing. [39689]

"LIKE HAVING ACCESS TO THE LIBRARY IN ALEXANDRIA" BACHILLER Y MORALES' MOST IMPORTANT WORK

11. BACHILLER Y MORALES, ANTONIO. Apuntes para la historia de las letras, y de la instruction publica de la isla de Cuba [Three Volumes in One]. Habana: Impr. de P. Massana / Impr. del Tiempo, 1859-61. 225, 2 pp.; 220, 4 pp.; 247, 1 pp. 8vo. Modern quarter speckled calf over green marbled boards, four raised bands, red morocco spine label titled in gilt, marbled endpapers. Palau 21634. Sabin 2608. Trelles IV, p.90. Jones / Medina 667. Parreño sale 1036. Griffin 905.

First edition. "The most important work published by Bachiller y Morales and containing valuable information on the literary history of Cuba," Trelles ("es la obra mas importante publicada por Bachiller y contiene preciosos datos sobre la historia literaria de esta Isla"). These articles -on schools, higher education, the press, literature, historiography, theater, music, biographies; and also containing a complete list of books printed in Cuba from 1724 to 1840- were previously published in various Spanish and Cuban periodicals. Antonio Bachiller y Morales (1812-1889) is considered the father of Cuban literature and Cuban bibliography (Cuba's Librarian Day is celebrated on his birthday). Jose Marti wrote that talking to Bachiller y Morales was like having access to the library in Alexandria. Provenance: Mario Guiral Moreno (1882-1964), essayist and founding member and chairman of the Cuban National Academy of Arts and Letters (his library stamp). A very good copy, title page foxed, owner's stamp on margin, a few small holes to top edge, notations on a few pages, leaves browned and edges foxed, more heavily to the first volume, binding quite fine. A handsome copy of a rare and important work with a distinguished provenance. [39690]

12. BALMACEDA, JOSÉ MANUEL.
Discurso de S.E. el Presidente de la Republica en la apertura del Congreso Nacional de 1888. Santiago de Chile: Imprenta Nacional, 1888. 27 pp. 8vo. Ribbon-tied paper wrappers.

First edition. Ribbon ties are in the tricolors of the Chilean flag. Balmaceda's second address to a Congress that was growing oppositional by the day called for a continuation of his policy of spending heavily on public works such as the construction of railways in the south, the building of schools and colleges, and the strengthening of the armed forces including new armament for the army, ships and the construction of a naval port at Talcahuano for the navy, and fortifying the neighborhoods of Valparaíso, Talcahuano and Iquique. OCLC locates six copies in addition to one at the BN Chile. A very good+ copy with minor shelf wear. [39609]

13. [BALMACEDA, JOSÉ MANUEL]. Algunas piezas relativas al pleito sobre la vinculacion de Bucalemu entre el mui reverendo arzobispo Don Manuel Fernandez Cereceda and José Manuel Balmaceda. Santiago: Imprenta de la Libreria del Mercurio, 1876. 93 pp. 8vo. Stitched paper wrappers.

First edition. Famous long lawsuit involving the inheritance of the Bucalemu farm. For a full discussion see 'Obras completas de Don José Clemente Fabres' (Santiago de Chile: Cervantes, 1909), Volume 5, pp. 131-254. OCLC locates only two copies: Harvard Law and BN Chile. A very good copy, spine chipped. [39610]

14. BAÑADOS ESPINOSA, JULIO. La revolución y la administración Balmaceda: discurso pronunciado en la Cámara de Diputados el 28 de abril de 1891. Santiago de Chile: Impr. de "Los Debates", 1891. 57 pp. Sm. 4to. Paper wrappers. Not in Palau. Echeverría: Biblio... Revolucion de 1891: 310.

First edition. A strong speech in support of the President, José Manuel Balmaceda, and attacking the rebellious Congress during the initial stage of the Chilean Civil War of 1891. Only five days earlier the Balmaceda forces sank the Congress' armored frigate Blanco Encalada with the loss of 300 of her crew. The speech was published the same year in Washington D.C. as "The Chilean Revolution and the Balmaceda Administration." Julio Bañados Espinosa (1858-1899) was a longtime supporter of Balmaceda. He served as Minister of Justice and Public Instruction just before the revolution and as Minister of Interior and Minister of War and Navy deputy during the war. After Balmaceda's defeat, he went into exile and settled in France, until an amnesty was declared which allowed him to return to Chile in 1894. OCLC shows 10 copies. A very good copy, wrappers rubbed. [38515]

15. BARALT, RAFAEL MARÍA. Resúmen de la historia de Venezuela desde el descubrimiento de su territorio por los Castellanos en el siglo XV, basta el año de 1797, ordenado y compuesto... Paris: Impr. de H. Fournier, 1841. 448 pp. Illus. with 5 engraved plates. 8vo. Three quarter brown morocco over marbled boards, black morocco spine labels. Sabin 3249. Palau 23576. Rodrigues 334.

First edition. Later expanded and continued to include modern history. A very good copy, boards rubbed. [38865]

16. [BARRA, JOSÉ MIGUEL DE LA]. Don Manuel Montt, su época, y sus adversarios políticos. Santiago: Imprenta de la Sociedad, 1851. 33 pp. Sm. 8vo. Quarter cloth over paper covered board pamphlet folder.

First edition. Published anonymously but the work of José Miguel de la Barra. (See Januario Espinosa, Don Manuel Montt: uno de los más grandes estadistas de América. Santiago de Chile, 1944). Nicely stitched into folder else a very good+ copy, clean, crisp, and unmarked, with small chip to corner of last leaf. [42256]

17. BARROS ARANA, DIEGO. Un Decenio de la historia de Chile (1841-1851). [Two Volumes]. Santiago de Chile: Imprenta y Encuadernación Universitaria; Imprenta, Litografía y Encuadernación Barcelona, 1905, 1913. xv, 538 pp.; 620 pp. 8vo. Half mottled brown morocco over alligatored boards, four raised bands, tan title label, green volume label, gilt titles. Palau 24960. Griffin 5714. Spain & Spanish America I, 71. Chiappa: Bibliografía Barros Arana 246.

First edition and later. Mixed editions uniformly bound, with Volume I a first edition and Volume II from: Obras Completas de Diego Barros Arana, Vol. XV. Diego Jacinto Agustín Barros Arana (1830-1907) is perhaps Chile's most important nineteenth century historian. "A sound, detailed narrative presenting a great deal of factual information on Chile's political, financial, administrative, and cultural development during a decade that the author considered 'one of the most instructive sections of national history.' Based upon official documents and the periodical press," Griffin, p.533. Very good copies, spine ends scuffed, Vol. I with faint dampstain on first few leaves, Vol. II last leaf repaired, owner's name and stamp on title. [35474]

UNDEFENDED VALPARAISO SAVAGED

18. BERMÚDEZ DE CASTRO, MANUEL. Bombardment of Valparaiso. Speech of the Spanish Minister for Foreign Affairs; together with the Diplomatic Circulars, report of the Spanish Admiral, &c. &c. &c. Referred to Therein. London: Printed by J.H. Schrader, 1866. 39 pp. 8vo. Stitched paper wrappers. Sabin 4915.

$400

First edition. 'Speech delivered by his Excellency The Minister for Foreign Affairs in the Chamber of Deputies, on the 22nd May, 1866' (plus documents including one by Casto Méndez-Núñez). After Spain was humiliated during the Chincha Islands War with Chile, Spanish Adm. Casto Méndez-Núñez (1824-1869) ordered his six ships to savage the undefended port of Valparaíso on 31 March 1866. Both Spain, for the attack, and Britain, for not using its fleet to stop it, were condemned by the international community. OCLC and a search of major European libraries locate only six copies: Boston Athenaeum, Harvard, British Lib., BN Chile, BN Spain, and Nat. Lib. Ireland. Nicks to spine else a near fine copy. [39615]

19. BLANCHARD CHESSI, ENRIQUE. Noticias Biográficas del Jeneral don Manuel Búlnes Pinto. Santiago de Chile: Imprenta de la Ilustracion Militar, 1899. 74 pp. Sm. 8vo. Stitched paper wrappers. Palau 30415. Anrique y Silva: 530.

First edition. Manuel Bulnes Pinto (1842-1899) was a Chilean military leader who fought for many years against the Arucanian Indians in the south and, after returning from a number of years in exile, ended his career as Minister of War. OCLC shows only two copies: BN Chile and Univ. Conn. An unopened (uncut) and untrimmed copy, small tears on the spine, soiling on wrappers, leaves browned, contents very good. [35685]

20. BOGARDUS, GUILLERMO. La compañía nacional y Thompson Bonar y Ca, Consignatarios del Guano en Inglaterra y Agentes financieros del Peru en Londres. Dedicado al público y muy especialmente a los diputados al congreso de la restauración. Lima: Imprenta Liberal, 1866. 37 pp. 12mo. Paper wrappers. Moreno, Biblioteca peruana II: 2048.

First edition. Guillermo Bogardus, a businessman and politician, protested the awarding of a contract for Guano to the newly formed Compania Nacional, charging that the contract was illegal and "that congress should void it and prosecute the new contractors for abuses against the state's interests. Moreover [he] argued that these national contractors formed a greedy circle that had betrayed the spirit of an 1849 legal principle granting preference to Peruvian nationals..." (Quiroz: "Corrupt Circles, John Hopkins, 2008, p. 121.) He would go on to haunt the national capitalists for another decade. Provenance: Francisco Pérez de Velasco, his stamp, former Peruvian Consul to New York, a dealer, who sold to Hiram Bingham an "unprecedented cache of... [very early colonial Peruvian]... documents and whose remaining collection on Peru was in "Cátalogo de la Biblioteca Peruana Propiedad de Dn. Francisco Perez de Velasco" Lima, 1918. OCLC locates three copies: Yale, Wayne State, and Inst. Hauste Etudes Amer. Latine; alos one at BN Peru. A very good bright copy, later silver cloth spine (most likely extracted from a pamphlet binder), owner's stamp on title. [42234]

21. BOLÍVAR, SIMÓN; ACADEMIA NACIONAL DE LA HISTORIA (VENEZUELA). Correo del Orinoco 1818-1821. Angostura (Venezuela) 1818-1821. Paris: Desclée, de Brouwer & cie, 1939. XV, [522] pp. The coat of arms of Venezuela in colors on verso of half- title. Folio. Paper wrappers.

First edition. Facsimile reproduction of the periodical Correo del Orinoco, in commemoration of the fiftieth anniversary of the National Academy of History. All 128 issues which actually ran until March 23, 1822. The Correo del Orinoco was an influential periodical, not only in Venezuela, but in all the Americas and Spain, serving as a propaganda source for the revolutionary forces. A very good unopened (uncut) copy with small chips and tears to spine ends, lightly soiled wrappers, small institutional bookplate on verso of front wrapper. [41724]

SIGNED BY SIMON BOLIVAR & ANTONIO JOSÉ DE SUCRE ON THE EVE OF PERU'S LIBERATION

22. BOLIVAR, SIMON. Republica del Peru, Simon Bolivar Libertador de Colombia, Y Encargado del Poder Dictatorial de Peru &c. &c. &c.... [Signed Commission]. Huánuco, Peru: 1822. 2 lvs, 1 page. 12 1/4 x 8 1/2 inches (31 x 21.5 cm). Folded sheet. $3500

Printed document with manuscript accomplishment, signed ("Simon de Bolivar"). Arms of Peru in left margin. Naming José Durán as Captain of the 1st Squadron of Lancers of Chaupihuaranga (del escuadrón de Lanceros de Milicias de Chaupihuaranga). Dated 22 July 1824 Cuartel General de Huánuco, (where Bolivar had moved his forces to cut off the enemies at Lima). Countersigned below, and signed by Antonio José de Sucre on the verso, dated 25 Julio. Less than two weeks later, after Durán became Captain, he would fight in the decisive battle of Junin, which would effectively end the war and finalize the liberation of Peru. A rare document signed by both Bolivar and Sucre. Old cello-tape on the left margin and on rear blank, cello-tape stain on lower front, edges worn and a few minor stains, previously folded, all text and signatures quite sharp. [40426]

23. BOMBAL, MARÍA LUISA. KLEINER, LEA, ILLUS. La Amortajada. Santiago: Sociedad de Bibliófilos Chilenos, 1966. 105 pp. + 2 plates. Illus. with 5 etchings. Sm. 4to. Loose quires in stiff paper portfolio and brown felt slip case.

First edition. Signed by the illustrator on each illustration. No. 43 of 100 special copies (of a total run of 235) with two extra etchings that were for Society members only and dropped from the normal edition. María Luisa Bombal Anthes (1910-1980) was a Chilean writer, one of the few women writers of her era to achieve critical recognition. La amortajada (The Shrouded Woman) was published in 1938, 5 years after she shot her husband and fled to Argentina where she met Jorge Luis Borges and Pablo Neruda. Lea Kleiner (b. 1929) is a watercolorist, photographer and writer. A near fine uncut (unopened) copy, spine tanned. Slip case rubbed with small split on lower edge. [38179]

$3850

First edition. The Empire of Brazil on a grand scale, printed shortly after Pedro declared the independence of Brazil, but before the conclusion of the Cisplatine War against the United Provinces of the Río de la Plata (Argentina) which cost her Uruguay. Sheets from Philippe Vandermaelen, Atlas universel de géographie physique, politique, statistique et minéralogique..., a magnificent and ground breaking six volume atlas of the entire world, which was the first Atlas to use lithography, to show the entire world using such a large uniform scale, approximately 26 miles to the inch, and which was designed to be joined together into a three-dimensional globe with a diameter of about 25 feet. Includes all of Brazil with some surrounding areas (an eighteenth sheet, No.36, was labeled 'Partie du Bresil, but in fact only included parts of Argentina and Chile). If joined together the map would measure approximately 9 x 7 feet. A very good sharp set. [40380]

27. BROWNE, JR., ALBERT G. The Growing Power of the Republic of Chile [in] Bulletin of the American Geographical Society. 1884. No. 1. New York: Printed for the Society, 1884. 88 pp. Sm. 4to. Paper wrappers.

First edition. Inscribed by the author to publisher George Haven Putnam. Albert Gallatin Browne, Jr. (1835 -1891) was 1853 graduate of Harvard, a journalist, and an avid abolitionist. The entire issue is devoted to this speech that Browne delivered on February 18, 1884 after a hurried trip he made for the New York Herald to cover the War of the Pacific between Chile and Peru and Bolivia, one in which Chile expanded its territory by about one-third and acquired vast nitrate deposits which led to its growing affluence. Rear wrapper with a small repaired tear else contents fine and unopened (uncut). [39761]

28. CAMPERO, NARCISO. Proyecto de revolución. Sucre, [Bolivia]: Imprenta de Beeche, 1857. [6], 105 pp. Sm. 8vo. Paper wrappers.

First edition. A grand design for education in Bolivia, including native Americans, written by Narciso Campero Leyes (1813-1896) later president of Bolivia, after his early career in the military and just prior to the rise of his political career. An important work. "Es muy interesante," Zinny (Catálogo General razonado de las obras adquiridas en las provincias Argentinas, 1887, p.213). A near fine copy, small notations on front wrapper. [42236]

ANTI-CONSTITUTIONAL CLERICS IN VENEZUELA

29. [CARACAS (VENEZUELA). CATHOLIC CHURCH]. Esposicion que hizo el Clero de Caracas, Al Supremo Congreso de Venezuela, contra el articulo 180 de la constitucion federal, que abrogaba el fuero eclesiastico. México: R. Rafael, 1848. [1], 52 pp. 8vo. Paper wrappers. Sutro: p. 838.

First edition. Written in the turbulent period in Venezuelan history which included an attack on the Congress in January of 1848, the clergy sought to overturn the constitutional article that circumscribed their authority and were forced to have this work printed outside their own country. OCLC locates only seven copies: Yale, Berkeley, Boston Athenaeum, Univ. Texas, Univ. Wisc., Library of Congress, BN Mexico. A very good copy, wrappers lightly soiled, tiny tear, tips of some corners folded. [39550]

30. CARBAJAL Y LANCASTER, ISIDRO DE, BISHOP OF CUENCA. Memorial-ajustado, hecho de orden del Consejo-Pleno, á instancia de los señores fiscales, del expediente consultivo, visto por remision de Su Magestad á él, sobre el contenido, y expresiones de diferentes cartas del Rev. Obispo de Cuenca D. Isidro de Carbajal y Lancaster. Madrid: En la oficina de Joachin de Ibarra, 1768. [2], [10] pp., 2-204 leaves. 4to. Old paper-covered boards. Palau 162212. Also see 27675. Goldsmiths'-Kress no. 10472.100, suppl. Parreño Sale 323.

First edition. Mostly consists of comments on certain writings of Isidro Carbajal y Lancaster, Bishop of Cuenca, who had accused the monarchy of setting the country "hopelessly adrift" and stripping the church of its properties, scorning its ministers, and running a disastrous colonial policy leading to deterioration of the Spanish possessions (there had been rioting in Quito, Ecuador, in 1766). The Prontuario variously ascribed these comments to the fiscales of the Consejo Real, Pedro Campomanes and José Moñino, as well as other documents in the case. The bishop was eventually forced "to recant formally and abjectly before a session of the Consejo de Castilla held in Aranda's resident," (Stanley J. Stein, "Apogee of Empire: Spain and New Spain in the Age of Charles III, 1759–1789," Baltimore: John Hopkins, 2003). Palau wrongly lists the date in the 162216 entry as 1767, though it is correct in the second entry. Provenance: Alberto Parreno: Swann Parreño sale, 9 February 1978, lot 323, this copy. Crude leather spine, faint dampstain to front board and corner of first few leaves, rear board with larger dampstain as well as last leaves, occasional soil spot on leaves, bookseller label at rear, but untrimmed and wide margined, with strong impressions, certainly a good or better copy. [41788]

31. [CASTRO, VÍCTOR W.] Mi vindicacion al publico. Santiago: Imprenta "Victoria", 1884. 25 pp. 8vo. Stitched paper wrappers. A detailed rebuttal of the political charges brought against the author. OCLC shows only one copy at BN Chile.

First edition. Wrappers detached and chipped, faint dampstain to one corner, lightly creased throughout, good only. [35810]

$700

First English Language edition. "The most complete and satisfactory work on Paraguay, and the only one in which the vast system of the Jesuits is fully developed, the position of the author affording him peculiar opportunities for its examination." (Cox quoting Maggs). This English language vesion is an abridgment of the larger work in French. Provenance: Samuel G. Arnold (1821 -1880) was a United States Senator from Rhode Island and president of the Rhode Island Historical Society (signatures from original endpapers laid in loose). A near fine set, a few most marginal worm holes to the last few leaves of each volume, partially affecting a few letters of text. [38870]

33. [CHILE. MINISTERIO DEL INTERIOR]. VERGARA, JOSÉ IGNACIO. Memoria del Ministro del Interior presentada al Congreso Nacional. Santiago de Chile: Imprenta Nacional, 1886. lxxxii, 224, [1] pp. Sm. 4to. Paper wrappers.

First edition. Provenance: Joaquin Walther (gift inscription). An unopened (uncut) copy in original paper wrappers, paper spine split as usual, wrappers edgeworn and soiled, inscription at top edge, scattered foxing, still very good. [42062]

SCARCE CHILEAN BROADSIDE WITH ENGRAVED PORTRAIT

34. [CHILE]. [BALMACEDA, JOSÉ]. Suicidio del ex-Presidente de Chile Señor Don José Manuel Balmaceda en la Legacion Argentina, en Santiago de Chile el dia 19 de Setiembre de 1891. Buenos Aires: Papelería Artística, ca. 1890s. 1 sheet 60 x 40 cm. Broadside.

$850

First edition. Central engraved portrait of Balmaceda surrounded by text, lower third a black bordered engraving of the death scene. Text includes a reprint of the first article on his death on September 20 from 'La Prensa' and Balmaceda's letter, written just prior to his death, to José E. Uriburu. José Manuel Emiliano Balmaceda Fernández (1840-1891) was the eleventh President of Chile, whose increasing difficulties with the Congress led to his ruling by decree which resulted in the Civil War of 1891. Having lost to the Junta and congressional forces, and with the homes of his supported looted and his officers murdered, in August Balmaceda took refuge in the Argentine legation, and committed suicide the day after his term of office had expired, leaving behind his written political testament. OCLC locates only a single copy at the BN Chile (55334047). Not in COPAC or any European or other Latin American Libraries. $350

First edition. An official list verifying the names and vote totals from the parishes of the Municipality of Santiago. Signed in print and ink by both Miguel de la Barra, President, and Antonio J. Vial, acting secretary. José Miguel de la Barra Lopez (1799-1851), Dean of the Faculty of Humanities of the University of Chile, and author of Compendio de la historia del coloniaje e independiencia de América, was a deputy in the Parliament. Antonio Jacobo Vial

Formas was a deputy and government official in both domestic and foreign affairs. One copy at the BN Chile, otherwise none located at any other major libraries. A very good bright copy, wrappers trimmed, tiny blind stamp at corner. [39601]

36. [CHILE]. MINISTERIO DEL INTERIOR. BALMACEDA, JOSÉ MANUEL. Proyecto de Reforma Constitucional presentado por el Presidente de la República en 1890. Santiago de Chile: Imprenta Nacional, 1890. 24, 38, 43 pp. 8vo. Stitched paper wrappers.

$200

First edition. Also includes Comparación de la Constitución Política Vigente con el Proyecto de Reforma, and Constitución Política de la República de Chile conforme Al precedente proyecto y á la proposición de reforma de 12 de Diciembre de 1888. These constitutional changes were offered at a time when hostility towards Balmaceda by the Chilean Congress was at its height. OCLC locates a single copy at Univ. Texas Austin but only with 43 pages. A complete copy is at the BCN Chile. A good copy, lacking the spine and rear wrapper, front wrapper nearly detached, otherwise contents clean. [39767]

37. CIGANDA, EV ARISTO G.; P ALOMAQUE, ALBERTO. Discursos Políticos. Montevideo: Imprenta de Dornaleche y Reyes, 1898. 77 pp. 12mo. Disbound. Palau 54692.

First edition. Evaristo Ciganda (1868-1910) was a Uruguayan lawyer, teacher, journalist, and legislator highly concerned with the countries educational needs. Considered too moderate and legalistic by the forces of Juan Lindolfo Cuestas, who took over in 1897 as President with the assassination of Juan Idiarte Borda, Ciganda was not included in the ruling coalition. He was however appointed Consul General in Paris. He was known as a fiery orator and included here are four of his legislative speeches from 1897. Today his name and picture adorn schools, streets, and stamps in Uruguay. Uncommon. Not in BN Uruguay. OCLC shows only three copies: Harvard, UNC Chapel Hill, and BN Spain. Removed from a larger volume else a very good copy. [34818]

38. CISTIAGA, JOSE HILARIO AND GUZMAN, ANTONIO L. [LEOCADIO] Memoria del señor secretario de hacienda al congreso de Venezuela de 1831. [Valencia, Venezuela]: n.p., 1831. 167 pp. 8vo. Three quarter morocco over marbled boards.

First edition. Three important reports from the founding year of Venezuela by Antonio Leocadio Guzman and Jose Hilario Cistiaga. Both Cistiaga and Guzman were supporters of Jose Antonio Paez, who declared Venezuela's independence from Gran Colombia and Bolivar in 1830. Includes: Memoria del señor secretario de hacienda al congreso de Venezuela de 1831 and Memoria del señor secretario de guerra y marina al congreso de Venezuela de 1831 both by Jose Hilario Cistiaga and Memoria sobre los negocios correspondientes a los despachos del interior y justicia del gobierno de Venezuelas ... by Antonio Leocadio Guzman. Copies at the Univ. Leipzig and BN Colombia, and a partial copy at the BN Venezuela, No other copies found in OCLC, COPAC, CCILA, or other European or Latin American Libraries. A good copy, front board detached, backstrip mostly worn away, otherwise contents about fine. [41705]

Agustín Guerrero (1817-1902) was President of the Provisional government of the Republic of Ecuador from 14 January 1883 to 5 October 1883 along with three others after the overthrow of the dictatorship established by General Veintemilla. The second collection of laws, (after the 1823-1824 edition), there being no session in 1822. A very good copy with two tiny wormholes in spine, scuffing to boards, partial label on spine, minor dampstaining to rear leaves, last leaf soiled. [40117]

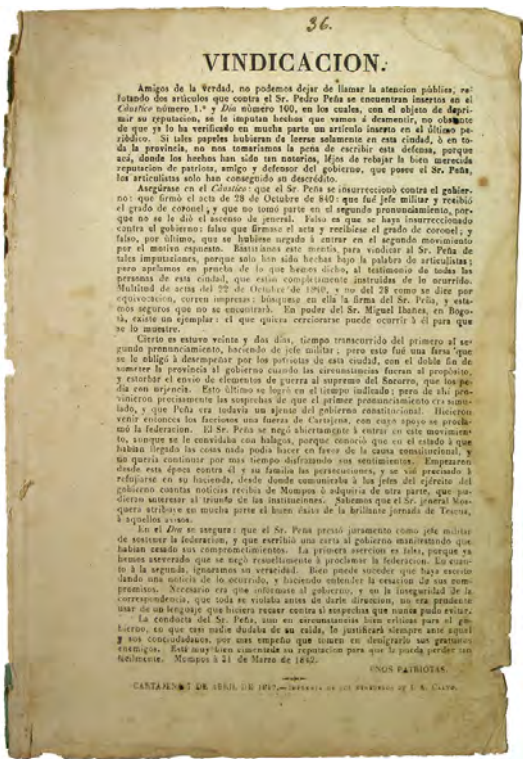

RARE COLOMBIAN BROADSIDES

40. [COLOMBIA]. [PENA, PEDRO ANTONIO DE LA]. [Two broadsides concerning the resignation of leniente coronel Pedro Pena]. Vindicacion [with] Al Publico. Cartajena: Impr. de los Herederos de J.A. Calvo, 1842. 1 leaf each. 12 x 8 in.; 10 x 7.5 in. Broadsides.

$950

First edition. Pedro Antonio de la Pena (1805-1861) was a native of Popayán from an illustrious family, appointed Military Commander of Ocaña Canton in 1831, and in 1840 was appointed governor of Ocaña and Mompós during the Guerra de los Supremos (1839-1842). Despite his exemplary behavior in support of the government, he was accused of sympathy for the rebel forces. The first document, 'Vindicacion', composed at Mompos [Santa Cruz de Mompox] 31 de Marzo de 1842, published 7 de Abril, and signed in print Enos Patriotas, refers to the governments orders and refutes the claims that he joined the Federal (rebellious) forces. The second document, 'Al Publico' was composed at Mompos 25 de Junio 1842, published 5 de Julio, and signed Sus Amigos. It was mailed from Ocana, as noted on the reverse; in it he is praised highly. In 1846 he served as commander of Battalion 7, and in 1848, with the concurrence of the Senate, was promoted to full Colonel. See Manuel Ezequiel Corrales: Efemérides y anales del Estado de Bolívar (Bogata: 1899), T. III). Extremely rare. No other known copies of either document. Very good copies with some wear, small inked number at top margin. Al Publico with folds, wax seal, and tear opposite; Vindicacion removed from larger volume with one or two stitch holes, some dampstaining at fore margin just affecting a few words. [38299]

47. CULLEN, DOMINGO. Vindicacion del honor vulnerado. Buenos Aires: Imprenta de Álvarez, [1823]. 14 pp. 8vo. Disbound, in folding archival portfolio.

First edition. Begins: "Si se hubiesen atacado derechos míos particulares, yo habria mirado con indulgencia á mis detractores...." Dated and signed on page 9: Buenos Aires abril 19 de 1823. 'Domingo Cullen.' Includes four pages of "Documentos" (10-14). Domingo Cullen (1791-1839) came to Argentina from the Canary Islands in 1811 and was active in Uruguayan independence, before moving to Santa Fe in 1823 when this pamphlet was written in response to an article in no. 36 of "El Centinela" of 13 April 1823, entitled "Sucesos notables." which attacked Estanislao López (1786-1838), Governor of Santa Fe, and Juan Antonio Lavalleja (1784-1853), another Uruguayan revolutionary. Quite uncommon. OCLC shows two copies: British Library and JCB. Another is located at the BN Argentina. Leaves loose, else a very good copy, small worm hole on a few leaves not affecting text, duplicate release stamp on last page, lower edge trimmed. [38512]

48. DAMPIERRE, JACQUES DE. Essai sur les sources de l'histoire des Antilles françaises (1492-1664). Paris: A. Picard et fils, 1904. 3 p. l., xl, 238 pp. Sm. 4to. Red cloth.

First edition. Series: Mémoires et Documents, 6. 1 of 100 copies printed on Hollande van Gelder paper. An important compilation of both primary and secondary sources. A near fine copy. [38864]

Schooling for Slaves Mandated

49. [DANISH WEST INDIES]. [CHRISTIAN VIII (CHRISTIAN FREDERIK), KING OF DENMARK]. Disposiciones tomadas el Gobierno de S.M. el Rey de Dinamarca en favor de los Negros esclavos en las Antillas danesas fecha de 18 de febrero de 1844. [Madrid]: 1844. [3 pp.], two leaves. 8 1/2 x 13 inches.

$1500

First edition. Official Spanish copy (with embossed stamp of the “Overseas” [Colonial] Ministry, Madrid) of an 1844 proclamation by the King of Denmark ordering minor reforms for slaves in the Danish West Indies (the “Danish Antilles” which is known now after their 1917 purchase by the United States as the Virgin Islands) which had, for over a century, “imported” 1000 African slaves annually to work the sugar plantations, the slave population eventually outnumbering white residents by more than 10 to 1. The end of slavery in the neighboring British West Indies prompted newly-crowned King Christian VIII, who favored gradual emancipation, as did the Danish population, to issue this very “conservative” proclamation, most of which detailed rules transferring the slaves’ one free day a week from Saturday to Sunday, compensating plantation owners for any “sacrifices” this might entail and allowing them to punish “lazy” slaves by Sunday labor (though any “unfairly punished” might complain to the Governor General). The most controversial provision was left to the final paragraphs, in which the Governor, in collaboration with Lutheran priests, was directed to establish a rudimentary school system by which slave children over the age of 9 would receive Sunday “religious” – and other – education. This modest experiment was vehemently opposed by plantation owners, but Britain's action in setting free the slaves of the British West Indies between 1834 and 1838 made it necessary for the Danish Government to put an end to slavery. Early in 1847 a decree of King Christian VII was promulgated by which all children born in the Danish Antilles after July 28th, 1847, would be born free. And a year later, Danish officials, fearing an open slave rebellion, would entirely abolish slavery on the islands. This copy was undoubtedly sent by Spanish officials in Madrid to the colonial Governor of Cuba – the largest European colony of the Caribbean to preserve slavery for years to come. We could find no ad verbatim copy of this proclamation in any English-language history; the one 1992 scholarly study which mentions its ramifications erroneously dated the document in 1843. A rare and important historical source on one forgotten slave institution of the Americas A very good copy.

50. DESNOES, EDMUNDO. LAM, WIFREDO, COVER ART. Todo esta en el fuego. La Habana: Ediciones Nosotros, 1952. 25, [1] pp. Sm. 8vo. Illustrated stapled paper wrappers.

$1500

First edition. Warmly inscribed in English by the author in the year of publication to "Nita," a friend living in the United States, and whom he wants to write back. Number 193 of two hundred copies. Cover art by Wifredo Lam, who was a close friend, and a further drawing at the end, by Silvianna Goldsmith, an early disciple of Wifredo Lam. Though known as a novelist, especially for his "Memorias del subdesarrollo" (Memories of Underdevelopment), made into an award winning film by Tomás Gutiérrez Alea, Edmundo Perez Desnoes (b. 1930, Cuba) was initially a poet; Todo esta en el fuego (Everything is on Fire) was his first published book. Very scarce, and even more so with such a personal inscription. We could not locate any for sale nor at auction in the last quarter century. OCLC locates only five copies, none signed: Mus. Modern Art, NYPL, Notre Dame, Univ. S. Carolina, and BN Spain A very good copy, wrappers soiled, spine rubbed with small tear at staple, endpapers mildly foxed, tiny indentation to upper margin of a few leaves. [42187]

$300

First edition. Signed on p. 42: E.M. Setiembre 1859. Attributed to Ernesto Malinouski, an engineer who was involved in the large-scale exploitation of the mines as well as other construction products including railroads. The work...describes coinage in circulation, criticizing irregularity of coins produced by Casa de Moneda. Analyzes exchange rations under bimetallism and disappearance of heavy coins. Various reform proposals criticized; recommends minting accurate coins at new weight, with underweight Bolivian coins allowed to circulate at appropriate discounts," (Cortes Conde & Stein, Latin America: a guide to economic history, 1830-1930, Univ. Cal., Berkeley, 1977, p. 601). OCLC locates six copies: Cornell, Yale, Indiana, Harvard, Lib. of Congress, & BN Chile. Also a copy at BN Peru. Provenance: Francisco Pérez de Velasco, his stamp, former Peruvian Consul to New York, a dealer, who sold to Hiram Bingham an "unprecedented cache of... [very early colonial Peruvian]... documents and whose remaining collection on Peru was in "Cátalogo de la Biblioteca Peruana Propiedad de Dn. Francisco Perez de Velasco" Lima, 1918. A very good+ bright copy, later wrappers, owner's stamp on title. [42233]

Volume I title: Diccionario historico y biografico de Chile 1800-1925. Arranged alphabetically by family name, then chronologically, with references and bibliographies, thus quite useful for genealogy. Spine ends chipped, front hinges starting, one volume scuffed at joints, one torn along joints, one with backstrip tender; leaves browning, but clean and unmarked, and still a good solid set. [42078]

First edition. Manuel José Gandarillas (1789-1846), appointed Minister of Interior and Foreign Affairs in 1826 under the Freire government, had uncovered financial irregularities concerning contracts by the Minister of War, Jose Maria Novoa, who was then dismissed. Novoa published a pamphlet in 1826 defending himself and accusing Gandarillas of intriguing against him. In this pamphlet, Gandarillas refuted Novoa's accusation, and revealed "in a clear and compelling manner the truth of what happened, and...contained other charges no less severe against the former Minister [Novoa]" according to Barra Arana in his Historia General de Chile. OCLC locates copies at Yale and BN Chile. A very good copy, removed from a larger volume, small chip to lower inner margin of title page, small duplicate release stamp on margin of last leaf. $125

Reprint. A facsimile reproduction of this important (and rare) liberal and anti-clerical weekly published in Mendoza, Sept. 23, 1824-Dec. 25, 1825 (except Sept. 12 to Oct. 8, 1825, inclusive when publication was suspended) and edited by J. G. Godoy, F. de B. Correas, J.L. Calle, and J. M. Salinas. (Nos, 28, 41, 50-51, 53, 56 and 58 are wanting in the reproduction). All issues were 4 pages, double columns, and printed by the Imprenta de la Societed Lancastriana, the third such establishment in Mendoza. The editors were influenced by the French Encyclopedists Voltaire, Diderot, Rousseau, Volney, etc. It was the arch enemy of an existing newspaper published by some Dominicans, El Amigo del Orden, whose editors called those of El Eco de Los Andes "Atheistic libertines!" The Eco's editors retorted that the Amigo's were guilty of fanaticism and superstition. The political articles warmly endorsed the liberal policies of the province's Governor, Juan de Dios Correas, and the liberal and humanitarian government of Bernardino Rivadavia. This was the first and unfortunately the last in the proposed series of reproductions by the Instituto de Investigaciones Históricas at the Universidad Nacional de Cuyo. Light soiling to edges and rear wrapper else a near fine copy. [35388]

64. GÓMEZ, ELISEO RICARDO. Canto al Uruguay. Viena [Vienna] / Montevideo: Imprenta de Adolfo Holzhausen, (1916). 12 pp. Sm. 4to. Printed paper wrappers.

68. [GUATEMALA]. ASAMBLEA NACIONAL CONSTITUYENTE. Ley Constitutiva de la Republica de Guatemala decretada por la Asamblea Nacional Constituyente en 11 de Diciembre de 1879 y reformada por el mismo alto cuerpo en 5 de Noviembre de 1887. Guatemala: La Union, 1887. 40 pp. Sm. 8vo. Later marbled paper wrappers.

$300

First edition. An important revision of the 1879 constitution. "In 1887 the Guatemalan Constitution of 1879 was modified. Among the guaranties to citizens contained in the amended Constitution was an article providing that primary instruction should be compulsory. Freedom of religious worship was guaranteed. Citizens might have recourse to the writ of habeas corpus. Entail was prohibited and also the retention of property in dead hands, except by charitable institutions. The President should be elected, by direct popular vote, for six years: he might not be reelected until six years had elapsed. In case of death or disability his place should be taken by substitutes in the order designated by Congress. Members of the cabinet might attend the sessions of the legislature and take part in its deliberations. A council of state made up of cabinet members and other persons selected by the President and the legislature was to act as his advisory body. Legislative authority should be vested in a unicameral legislature called the National Assembly, which was to be composed of members elected by direct popular vote for four years. The Constitution also provided for a permanent committee of Congress that resembled the committee established by the Costa Rican Constitution of 1871. Judicial authority was vested in a supreme court which should be composed of five members chosen by direct popular vote. This Constitution stipulated that federal judges must belong to the legal profession and might not be ecclesiastics. The basis of local administration should be departments that were to be managed by political chiefs appointed by the President," (Robertson, History of Latin American Nations, p. 456). But it also restored a section allowing for extraordinary presidential emergency powers, when "the interest or necessity of the Republic demand," which had been removed during the revision of 1885. Tears to top of title repaired on verso, inked name and date, still a very good+ copy. [39557]

69. GUTIERREZ ESTRADA, J.M. [JOSÉ MARIA]. Carta dirigida al escmo. sr. Presidente de la Republica, sobre la necesidad de buscar en una Convencion el posible remedio de los males que aquejan á la República; y opiniones del autor acerca del mismo asunto. México: Impreso por Ignacio Cumplido, 1840. 96, [4] pp. Illus. with one engraved plate and a few tail pieces. 8vo. Paper wrappers. Palau 111573. Sabin 29353. Sutro: p. 739.

First edition. Jose Maria Gutierrez Estrada (1800-1867) was an important politician and diplomat whose open letter to President Bustamente (and its expansion into this pamphlet) shortly after Bustamente's imprisonment and escape from the National Palace (the subject of the pamphlet's plate) caused a sensation in Mexico. Gutierrez Estrada called for an open and frank discussion of a liberal constitutional monarchy for Mexico which would meet the needs and traditions of the Mexican people while allowing for a strong central government to defend Mexico's borders against the territorial aggression of the United States. Denounced by all parties, liberal and conservative, Gutierrez Estrada was forced to escape to Europe. Spine reinforced with matching paper, dampstain on upper corner of some leaves, still very good. [39554]

First English Language edition. With one page of advertisements. Originally published as "Tagebuch einer reise durch Peru" (Dresden, 1798). Anton Zacharias Helms (1751 - 1803) was a mining expert who joined the expedition to the Viceroyalty of the Rio de la Plata led by Thaddeus von Nordenflicht at the request of the King of Spain to assist in improving the system for processing silver from the mining operations in Potosi. This is the best record of the expedition, and Helms writes not only about mining operations, but in the second section covers extensively the governments, geology, topography, peoples, history, and commerce of the region. An abridged version without the map and running 92 pages, was published the following year. Provenance: Coleccion Monclau (bookplate). A near fine copy, armorial bookplate on front pastedown, faint glue mark at hinge, minor foxing. [38738]

$500

First edition. Henry Hill (1795-1892), in this vivid pamphlet "printed to be sent to a few kind friends, with my compliments," was the first United States' merchant to bring weapons to the rebels fighting for Chilean independence. "Hill left New York about the middle of December, 1816, going to Baltimore, whence he embarked as supercargo on the brig Savage January 5, 1817, with a cargo of warlike stores, bound for South America. Finding it impossible to sell these in Buenos Aires, the ship sailed through the Straits of Magellan and reached Chile in May, where, before long, Hill got in touch with San Martin and finally disposed of his cargo. He lived in Valparaíso from 1817 to 1821, leaving there in March, 1821, and going to New York by way of Argentina and Brazil," (Hiram Bingham, Bulletin of the Pan American Union, Volume 26, Issue 1, p. 293). Scarce. Only one at auction in nearly half a century (or more), at Swann's New York Historical Society sale in 1978, lot 363, this copy, which sold for $320. OCLC locates only four copies: NH State Lib., Lib. of Congress, JCB, BN Chile. A very good ex-lib copy, gilt accession numbers on spine, light soiling on title and last page, faint institutional stamp on rear pastedown. [40400]

Nouvelle édition. Augmentée de la relation de l'emeute populaire de Cuença au Pérou et d'une Lettre de M. Godin des Odonais, contenant la relation du voyage de Madame, Godin, son epouse, &c. First published in Paris in 1745. Also includes the author's account of a riot against the French scientists in Cuenca (The folding engraved frontispiece is a scene from the second work, of the "tumult" in the bull fighting arena where the surgeon of the group was murdered) and the first edition tale of the wife of the expedition's cartographer, Jean Godin des Odonais' extraordinary journey from Peru across the Amazon Basin to French Guiana to reunite with him after a 20-year separation. La Condamine was one of those chosen by the Academie des Sciences to participate in an expedition to Peru to measure several degrees of meridian at the equator hoping to settle the Newtonian / Cartesian controversy over the shape of the poles. La Condamine was accompanied by his fellow Academiciens Godin and Bouguer and the naturalist Joseph de Jussieu; after completing their measurements, they returned by separate routes and La Condamine, who chose to return by way of the Amazon, ended up making the first scientific exploration of that river and the first map (included here) of the Amazon in which the latitudes were observed. "Written in a very lively and picturesque style, the Relation is full of interesting and curious observations. One of La Condamine's preoccupations was to verify the existence of women known as Amazons...

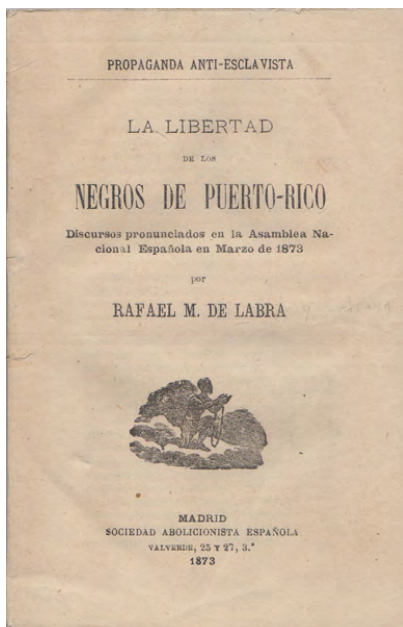

This Maestricht edition is more difficult to find than the Paris edition," Borba de Moraes, Bibliographia Brasiliana, p. 380.

First edition. A history of the Portuguese explorations of the 15th and 16th centuries. The world map delineates the voyages of Vasco da Gama, Cabral, and Magellan. Though best known for his 'Mœurs des sauvages américains,' Joseph-François Lafitau (1681-1746), a Jesuit missionary and discoverer of ginseng in North America, also wrote this two volume history which "is not just a compilation of original sources but an attempt to make available to French readers a story of exploration and adventure otherwise denied to them; in the chronicles, he sees a long development of customs hitherto unnoticed, such as he had reported in the 'Mœurs'; from them, understood only, he says, in the original languages of the people who practice them, he builds his 'system' or philosophy of history, and once more he is concerned too with the relation between custom and natural history, or ecology," William N. Fenton, 'Lafitau, Joseph-François.' in Dictionary of Canadian Biography, vol. 3. A very good copy, small repair to title page on volume I, some occasional browning, a few tiny marginal worm holes and a few small marginal chips, text and plates sharp, in a fine period-style binding. First edition. No. 6 of 92 numbered copies (of a run of 100). This story of "The Gaucho War", published by the Argentine Bibliophile Society under the direction of Armando Braun Menendez, is part of a series of six stories by Argentines illustrated by Argentine artists. The illustrations from the pen of Jorge Argerich (1905-) were etched, drawn by Raul Veroni in his hand press. Printing by Francis A. Colombo. Leopoldo Lugones Argüello (1874-1938,) Argentine writer and journalist, published La Guerra Guacha in 1905, and it made into a film in 1942. A fine copy in a very good rebacked portfolio with matching slipcase. [38198]

83. LUCIANI, JORGE. Zumo de verdades. Habana: Imp. Capitolio, 1934. 119 pp. 16mo. Paper wrappers.

First edition. Warmly inscribed by the author to Enrique Naranjo Martinez, Colombian Consul in Boston. A very scarce collection of short newspaper pieces by Jorge Luciani (1896-1856) a political activist and author. In 1918 he participated, as a college student, in the student demonstrations in favor of the Allies and was arrested and exiled. In New York he founded, "Unión Cívica Venezolana" (Venezuelan Civic Union) in 1927 opposed to the dictatorship of Juan Vicente Gómez Chacón, military leader of Venezuela. After the death of Gomez, he joined the administration of General Eleazar Lopez Contreras. He published several historical political works: Bolívar galante (1922), La dictadura de perpetua de Gómez y sus adversarios (1930), Zumo de verdades (1934), El máximo turbulento de la Gran Colombia y otros estudios (1943), Abajo las caretas (1948) y Los principios constitucionales del Libertador (1952). Quite uncommon. We could locate only two institutional holdings: BN Spain and BN Venezuela. Font wrapper nearly detached else very good with author inscription on first blank. [42146]

91. MENDIBIL, PABLO DE. BUSTAMANTE, CARLOS MARÍA DE. Resúmen Histórico de La Revolucion de Los Estados Unidos Mejicanos; sacado del "Cuadro Histórico" que en forma de cartas escribió el Lic. D. Carlos María Bustamante, i ordenado en cuatro libros. London: Lo Publica R. Ackermann, 1828. xxv, 423 pp. Illus. with 5 b/w plates. 8vo. Modern half red cloth over marbled boards, brown morocco gilt spine label, rules, marbled edges. Palau 163362. Sabin 47810. Spain & Spanish America II: 73.

First edition. Pablo de Mendibil's synopsis of Carlos Maria Bustamante's 'Cuadro Historico de la Revolucion de Mexico' (1823), was an attempt to popularize the Mexican cause among Europeans since Bustamante's original work was exceeding scarce. Mendibil (1788-1832), an exile from Spain living in London, one of the 'afrancesados' who had emigrated to France in 1814, prepared this work at the urging of Mexican Independistas, including the publisher Rodolfo Ackermann, for whom he had previously written textbooks. Both the original by Bustamante and the shorter work by Mendibil, are hard to find and are rarely at auction. A very good or better copy in a bright binding, title leaf soiled with old edge repair, an expertly repaired chip on corner, scattered foxing, minor damp marking to top edge of plates, small puncture on advertising leaves. [38914]

First edition. Includes: Oratio in funere exmî. et illmî. principis Emmanuelis Ignatii González a Campillo by Ludovico de Mendizabal et Zubialdea, Rector of the College of St. Paul in Puebla, and Elogio fúnebre del exmô. é illmo. señor D. Manuel Ignacio González del Campillo by Francisco Pablo Vázquez, formerly Bishop of Puebla and later the first diplomat of independent Mexico who gained recognition for Mexico from the Vatican. Though Manuel Ignacio González del Campillo (1740-1813), the Creole Bishop of Puebla, was a great benefactor of the population and responsible for introducing mass vaccinations and establishing many charitable programs, there was a darker side to his tenure, which included his strong support of the Spanish crown and his persecution of those seeking independence, especially the revolutionary Padre Miguel Hidalgo. A very good copy with neat minor marginalia, worm holes in lower margin not affecting text, contents bright. [40969]

93. MERA, JUAN LEON. Tomas Moncayo Avellan y su Memoria Presentada al Instituto Geografico Argentino. Quito: [Imprenta de Gobierno], 1888. 19 pp. 8vo. Removed. Palau 164866.

Imagery including photographs of a trip taken earlier in Jorge Rosa Reed's career: the Chilean Ship, Crew Acaoncagua at the port of Svendbord (Denmark) and their visit there; and a small photo, probably professionally taken, of this ship; several good candid shots of men on board Chilean naval vessels, launching lifeboat, swabbing decks, more; several photographs of attractive women friends, with well-wishes (Captain Jorge was a handsome man); a press photo from Stillmans Gym NY of Antonio Fernandez (Fernandito) Chilean champion boxer (1911-1976) inscribed to the Captain in friendship, several images of cargo being loaded at dockside, stevedores & company worthies; the ship "Imperial" in drydock; naval cadet school photos, later portrait images of what appear to be groups of businessmen, probably CSAV people; a few from a 1950's trip to Antwerp. Approximately 85 images contained in a photo album, loosely mounted in at their corners, not glued, with approx. 25 images not mounted and laid-in; various formats and sizes, all black and white; the largest about 7" x 9" size, the smallest snapshot 2 1/4" x 3 1/2", with most of the images somewhere between and in generally good condition, occasional wear or crinkling (if they'd been dismounted); contained in period beige stiff-paper album, oblong format, string bound, approx. 9" x 13", with wear and rubbing; (with) the Chilean merchant marine captain's & pilot's certification, completed in manuscript, "Marina Mercante Nacional Chile ... Capitan de Cabotaje de la Marina Mercante Nacional Piloto Primero ..." signed by the Director del Litoral and with the original registration stamp, nicely colored arms of Chile at top, approx. 9 1/2" x 14 3/4" size, some browning, old creasing, still very good and a fairly handsome document; Captain Jorge Rosa Reed (c. 1916-2011), formerly an officer in the Chilean Navy, for many years a director of operations for the Compania Sud-Americana de Vapores in their New York offices. CSAV one of the oldest continuously operating shipping companies in the world (started in 1872); a good group of photographic material illustrating the career of a South American naval officer who went on to living in the U.S. and was involved in international shipping. Very good. [41757]

95. [MEXICO. UNIVERSIDAD NACIONAL Y PONTIFICIA DE MÉXICO]. [Signed Diploma from the Universidad Nacional y Pontificia de México]. [Mexico City]: 1826. 1 page. 12 1/4" x 8 1/2".

First edition. Signed by the secretary of the University, Joseph Maria Rivera, and with the university seal affixed: "Sigillum minus Nationalis ac Pontificiae Mexicanae Universitatis." The seal is a double oval with the inner containing an eagle over a cactus, while the outer contains crossed keys under a Papal crown. Both the name and the seal of the University, originally "la Real y Pontificia Universidad" were changed after independence in 1821, then again when Agustín de Iturbide was declared emperor in 1822, and yet again after his downfall a year later with his crown removed from the eagle. A very good copy with minor soiled spots and folds with small tape repairs verso. [39577]

96. [MEXICO]. El Siglo Diez y Nueve. Año 1, N. 59, Trim I, Domingo 5 de diciembre de 1841 ... [to] Año 2, N. 376, Trim I, Sabado 22 de octubre, 1842. [88 issues bound in One Volume]. México: [Imprenta de Ignacio Cumplido], 1841-1842. [Each issue 4 pp. each]. Folio. Cloth. Palau 312869. Sabin 80905.

$1200

First edition. El Siglo Diez y Nueve, founded by Juan Bautista Morales and Mariano Otero (circulated between 1841 and 1896), was one of the most influential (and longest running) nineteenth-century publications covering the social and political life of Mexico. Juan Bautista Morales (1788-1856) was born in Guanajuato, studied jurisprudence and participated in the Constitutional Convention of 1824, where he defended federalism. He served as a magistrate and president of the Supreme Court. The paper spoke for a generation of Mexican liberals and was thus part of the debate about nation building. It was attacked by powerful conservatives, its writers jailed and harassed, and its publication suspended numerous times. Issues rarely come to market, especially such early ones, covering the invasion of Texas, the Constitutional debate, and the elections of 1842. Outside of the BN Mexico, early holdings are incomplete and can found at the British Library, Library of Congress, and Yale. This volume includes: Año 1, Trim. I: No's. 59, 60-65, 68-69. Año 1, Trim. III: No's. 176 (Viernes 1 de abril 1842), 178-181, 183-188, 198-202, 204-207, 210-213, suplemento al n. 213 (10 de mayo de 1842), 214, 216, 218, 249-250, suplemento al n. 250 (16 de junio de 1842), 251, Trim. IV: No's. 266-267, 271-273, 285, 287-290, 292-293, 304, 308, 319-323 (28 de agosto), 324 (misnumbered 323, dated 30 de agosto), 325-327, 333-334, 342-348. Año 2, Trim. I: No's. 356 (Domingo 2 de octubre 1842), 357-359, 363-369, 374-376 (Sabado 22 de octubre, 1842). Provenance: Phillipps Collection (note). Overall very good copies, about half of the issues with very faint dampstain on lower third of leaves, edges worn, occasional tears or holes rarely affecting text, in a worn binding, lacking half the spine, chipped at tail, three inch tear on front board. [41198]

97. [MÉXICO]. Periodico Oficial del Gobierno del Estado de Puebla. Tomo IV, Núm. 1. Puebla de Zaragoza, sábado 4 de enero de 1873 [to] Núm. 104, miércoles 31 de diciembre de 1873. $500

First edition. Includes "Alcance al Numero 74" - a supplement issued in smaller size. Continues the numbering of the Periodico oficial of 1867-1869. (See. E. Cordero y Torres, Historia del periodismo en Puebla, 1820-1946). Puebla was an important and desirable area for development. The railroad would reach it in 1873. Uncommon on the market, and with only about a dozen institutional holdings. Bottom edges trimmed else a very good- copy, spine scuffed and torn at ends, boards edge worn, about one third of issues with browned leaves, else quite bright, scattered foxing, occasional small tear to leaves at margin. [41200]

98. [ALMANACS]. CUMPLIDO, IGNACIO, ED. AND GALVÁN RIVERA, MARIANO, ED. [Four Mexican Almanacs] Cuarto calendario portatil de I. Cumplido, para el año de 1839. Arreglado al meridiano de Mejico [with] Calendario

Illus. with b/w engravings, musical score, and folding plan. 16mo. Cloth with gilt titles, original wrappers bound in. Palau 66289.

Three first editions and one second edition (1840). Notre-Dame de Guadalupe du Mexique (Paris, Typ. de Rouge frères et Comp.) an 8 page booklet (32 mo), is tipped in at the end of the final calendar. An excellent set of early issues of these calendars with numerous woodcuts. The 1839 volume has a long section with 14 natural history woodcuts; 1840 has woodcuts of the 'catedral de san pedro en roma' and 'la catedral de puebla' plus a long article on the election of a new pope; 1841 has a large folding woodcut with a plan of 'Cuidad de Guadaluajara', a woodcut 'Cascada de tula,' and a long article on the Mexican Indians 'tribus barbaras' with nine small woodcuts of the major groups, a table listing the approximate number of family units and individuals, and two small musical scores for two tribes, while the rear wrapper has a woodcut of the main plaza in Guadaluajara; the 1842 issue contains an article on the invention of printing, many small woodcuts, and one plate with a grouping of metals. The calendars are held at a small number of institutions, while the small pamphlet "Notre-Dame de Guadalupe du Mexique," is not on OCLC nor any online library catalogue we could access. Provenance: From the library of Maximilian I, with this monogram in gilt on spine. About fine except for the last volume which has an inked 'x' through the calendar section, minor foxing on fore edge, a few leaves browning. [42134]

99. [MEXICO]. GIL Y GARCÉS, MARTÍN. El doctor Don Martín Gil y Garces, dean de la Santa Iglesia catedral de Michoacán: manifiesta los hechos é irrefragables constancias que evidenciaron la escandalosa arbitrariedad con que su cabildo sedevacante lo ha despojado del beneficio que canonicamente obtiene; y combatiendo el especioso é infundo dictámen de los letrados, á quienes estudiosamente se consulto al efecto, se somete al juicio de los sabios, y al de los imparciales y sensatos, a quienes, como á todo el respetable público, protesta instruir del progreso y terminación de los recursos que ha entablado para su pronta restitución. Mexico: Impr. del ciudadano A. Valdés, 1831. Illus. with b/w photos. 8vo. Three quarter red morocco over blue cloth boards.

First edition. A conservative catholic who long opposed Iturbide and had been a staunch supporter of the Spanish crown, Martín Gil y Garces, Dean of Church in Michoacan was denied his Council seat under the pretext of his travel abroad to Europe without permission during the political upheavals of 1830-1831. He argues for the actions to be overturned in a brief with 26 sections. The Church responded to his accusations with its own work published a month later: "El cabildo sede-vacante de Michoacan, ara manifestar que no fue arbitraria la declaración que hizo contra el dr. d. Martin Gil y Garces, privandole de la dignidad de dean de aquella santa iglesia, presenta al público con mas estension, los hechos é irrefragables constancias que justifican sus procedimientos y descubren la escandalosa mala fé con que el mismo dr. Gil se ha producido en su Manifiesto, intentando sorprender á los subios é imparciales, y alucinar á los ignorantes." At least two more pamphlets on the subject were published that year. Scarce. OCLC locates only five copies: Berkeley, Columbia Univ., Fuller Theological Sem., BN Mexico, and BN Spain. About fine, minor rubbing on board and a few old erasures. [42113]

IMPORTANT SCIENTIFIC & CULTURAL ACCOUNT OF SOUTH AMERICA

100. MIERS, JOHN. Travels in Chile and La Plata: including accounts respecting the geography, geology, statistics, government, finances, agriculture, manners and customs, and the mining operations in Chile: collected during a residence of several years in these countries. London: Printed for Baldwin, Cradock, and Joy, 1826. xv, 494 pp.; viii, 352 pp. (without 4 pp. advertisements). Illus. with 6 maps and plans (4 folding), 16 plates (1 folding), and intext drawings. Goldsmiths'-Kress 24798. Griffin 3636. Naylor 13.

$1500

First edition. John Miers (1789–1879) was a British botanist and engineer, who traveled to South America to begin a copper mining venture in Chile, a trip that he abandoned when his wife fell ill, and instead focussed on collecting plants. "Travels in Chile and La Plata, which appeared ... [in 1826] in two volumes, edited and carried through the press by his father-in-law, Francis Place, was to bring him a lasting reputation as the foremost authority on the geography and way of life of that region," (ODNB, 18688). Volume One is primarily a travel account and "a very good one" (Griffin), while the second volume is an organized and detailed description of Chile's geography, politics, history, society, mining, and natural history. Scattered foxing to plates and a few leaves including titles, else a near fine copy. [39082]

$1000

First editions. This is the most famous 19th c. work on Central America and a very important regional history by an anti-clerical and liberal historian, Lorenzo Montufar y Rivera Maestre (1823 -1898), who, as foreign minister of Costa Rica, helped organize the Central American defense against William Walker, and was frequently exiled for his opposition to the dictator Rafael Carrera. It contains substantial documentation. The seventh volume (not included here) was strictly dedicated to William Walker and is sometimes catalogued separately. Overall very good or better: first five volumes very good plus, lightly rubbed, vol. 6 spine sunned, extremities worn, a few splits to joints. [34088]

$700

First edition. "A letter which was circulated in London... written for the information of the British Ministry" with accompanying documents, extracts from reports, etc., forming a detailed account of both political and economic conditions in Argentina shortly after independence in the hope of promoting diplomatic recognition, foreign investment, and immigration. Britain was promoting many immigration initiatives "to induce artisans, labourers, and workmen of all kinds to come from Europe." The Argentinean government supplied the statistics, copies of treaties with Britain, data on mining, weather, immigration policies, to Nuñez (1792-1846) who was the Argentinean charge d'affairs in London in 1825. Also includes a supplement on Argentina's position concerning Brazil's aggressive occupation of Uruguay. Nunez had the work published by Ackermann in both Spanish and English. One map colored in outline shows Argentina and Uruguay (44.5 x 51 cm); the second is a topographical plan of Buenos Aires (32 x 38 cm). Provenance: Coleccion Monclau (bookplate). Overall a very good or better copy, armorial bookplate on front pastedown, title page tender, rear blank with large chip, original contemporary rear wrapper bound in but worn, color map bound upside down, in a fine modern binding. $500

First edition. Presentation copy, inscribed by the author to his fellow Italian painter, art critic, and politician Cipriano Efisio Oppo (1891-1962). Mario Palanti (1885-1978) was an Italian architect and painter born in Milan, who's major work was completed in Latin America. He studied painting at the Academy of Brera and later at the School of Architecture of the Polytechnic. In 1909 along with Francisco Gianotti, he managed the construction of the Italian Pavilion for the Exposición Internacional del Centenario (1910). During his initial stay in Argentina before the First World War, his designs employed variations of Renaissance Revival and Art Nouveau styles. "[His] work represents, perhaps better than the output of the rest of his generation, a dynamic and dramatic change between tradition and architectural Modernism. The complexity and nature of his work, which far exceeds others of the period, make him a particularly meritorious architect from the historiographical point of view," Fernando Aliata, "Mario Palanti y la construcción de una poética ecléctica en Argentina" Cuadernos de Historia: Nro.8 Instituto de Arte Americano e Investigaciones Estéticas, Junio de 1997, which also includes an exhaustive lists of his work including in Buenos Aires the Palacio Barolo and Hotel Castelar, both in Avenida de Mayo; an apartment building on the corner of Santa Fe Avenue and Callao Avenue; and Palacio Chrysler (today known as Palacio Alcorta) which had an automobile test track on its roof, similar to the first FIAT factory in Turinas well as the Palacio Salvo in Montevideo, Uruguay. OCLC lists only 10 copies. Wear at spine ends and along joints, small tear to top front joint and at middle of spine, remnants of paper revenue stamps on spine, occasional offsetting or light soiling on a few leaves, still a very good copy. [41786]

LEADER OF GUATEMALAN ARISTOCRATS DIES

115. [PAVÓN AYCINENA, MANUEL FRANCISCO]. [Funeral notice for] Manuel Francisco Pavon. Guatemala: 1855. 1 sheet. 13.5 x19.5 cm. Single sheet bordered in black on three edges.

$250

First edition. Issued by the Secretaries of the State, announcing the funeral service and procession on April 19, 1855, this invitation is addressed in manuscript to Dr. Mariano Padilla, Professor of Surgery. Manuel Francisco Pavón Aycinena (1798-1855) was a leader of the group of conservative aristocrats who ran the government of Guatemala, including Juan Jose Aycinena, Luis Batres, Mariano Ayciena, Predro Aycinena, and Bernardo Pinol. After the 1826-29 civil war, in which he served as a lieutenant colonel, Pavon went into exile, returning in 1837 and supporting Rafael Carrera as President, and was instrumental in having Carrera named 'president for life' in 1854, just a year before this death notice. In his various positions as secretary of the Assembly, diplomat, editor in chief of the official government Gazette, and variously Minister of Finance, War, Justice, Foreign Relations, Interior, and Ecclesiastical Affairs, he had a major influence in molding Guatemala's governmental structures that last until this day. At his death, the government granted his widow the largest pension ever authorized by them. Not in BN Chile or could we locate copies at any other major libraries. A very good copy, paper remnants on inner edge, small closed tear on fore edge. [38303]

116. PERÓN, JUAN. Por la cooperacion economica y la paz mundial. Declaración del excelentísimo señor Presidente de la Nación Argentina, general Juan Perón, pronunciada el 6 de julio de 1947. Buenos Aires: [Subsecretaría de Informaciones de la Presidencia de la Nación], 1947. 15 pp. Illus. with 1 b/w photo. 12mo. Cloth.

First edition. The first printing of this declaration by Peron made on July 6, 1947 (it was included later the same year as one of three pieces in an item with a similar title). It claimed for Argentina a "Third Position" of positive neutrality in the cold war between the Western powers and Russia. Peron was soon to organize the Peronist Party and set forth his program of "Justicialismo" stressing that true justice was more important than the old legal system which favored large capitalist interests, both domestic and foreign, particularly British and American. In this Declaration he vouches that the material and spiritual forces of Argentina must express to the world, that Argentina seeks to serve humanity, that above all, international peace is his major objective. Argentina must cooperate with other nations, labor must be protected, the economy must be regulated by the state to benefit all, exploitation must be eradicated in order to end social injustice. Argentina must light the flame for all the Americas and must always be free and independent. A very good+ copy, interior detached at staple, leaves browned. [35028]

A WORK OF EXTREME INTEREST

117. [PERU: VICEROYALTY]. FUENTES, MANUEL A T ANASCIO, ED. MINISTERIO DE HACIENDA. Memorias de los vireyes que han gobernado el Perú, durante el tiempo del coloniaje español [Six Volumes]. Lima: Libreria Central de Felipe Bailly, 1859. xxx, 379, 2 l.; pp. 428; 391; 540; 392, 1 blank l., pp. 17, 1 l.; pp. 394 pp. Illus. with one folding map and 12 plates. 4to. Original publisher's dark brown pebbled cloth, ruled in blind, gilt titles on spine and front board with armorial device. Palau 95426. Sabin 26119. Ticknor p. 458. Spain & Spanish America II, 452. Griffin 2980.

First edition. Gift copy with note on official letterhead dated 1867 tipped-in from Felipe Masías, Director of Administration of the Ministerio de Hacienda and later Finance Minister of Peru to Diego Henry, who was appointed to serve with him in 1867 on the High Council of Finance during the Prado administration's far reaching program of constitutional reform. "A work of extreme interest," Sabin. These memoirs, prepared by ten of the viceroys, were intended to apprise each successor of the nature and duties of his post, of the distribution of offices and presidencies, of the privileges of the natives, their hereditary customs and character—"in short, statistics of everything that could be needed. The work forms a glorious monument of statesmanship; and it may be conjectured that if the Spaniards had always formed their conduct according to these Memorias, they would never have lost their colonies in the New World" (Bibliotheca Geographico-Linguistica #321 part III, 1879, 12235). The series was edited under the direction of the Ministerio de Hacienda by M.A. Fuentes. Contents: t.1. J. de Mendoza y Luna, marqués de Montesclaros [1615]; F. de Borja y Aragon, principe de Esquilache [1621]; Baltasar de la Cueva, conde de Castellar [1681]; M. de Liñan y Cisneros [1681]; t. 2. M. de Navarra y Rocaful, duque de la Palata [1689]; t. 3. Armendaris, marqués de Castel-Fuerte [1736]; J. A. de Mendoza, marqués de Villagarcia [1745]; t. 4. J. A. Manso de Velasco, conde de Superunda [1761]; M. Amat y Yunient [1773]; t. 5. Teodoro de Croix [1790]; t. 6. F. Gil de Taboada y Lemos [1796]. Good or better, boards rubbed, a few joints split but quite solid, corners heavily worn, spines chipped, especially at the heads with repairs, cloth separating from boards on one volume, free endpapers heavily offset, pencil notations in last volume, otherwise contents clean and very good, plates sharp, and map fine but for a tiny marginal tear along a crease line. [38543]

$200

First edition. Juan Antonio Pezet (1809-1879) was President of Peru during the Spanish-Peruvian (-Chilean) war over the Chincha Islands which contained vast deposits of Guano. He was forced to flee to Europe when his treaty with the Spanish was found wanting. Provenance: Francisco Pérez de Velasco, his stamp, former Peruvian Consul to New York, a dealer, who sold to Hiram Bingham an "unprecedented cache of... [very early colonial Peruvian]... documents and whose remaining collection on Peru was in "Cátalogo de la Biblioteca Peruana Propiedad de Dn. Francisco Perez de Velasco" Lima, 1918. Scarce. OCLC reports only microfiche copies, but it is part of the Yale series of Latin American pamphlets and BN Peru also has a copy. A very good copy, tear to front blank wrapper, later silver cloth spine (most likely extracted from a pamphlet binder), owner's stamp on title. [42235]

$400

Tercera edition, notablemente aumentada y corregida. First published anonymously, Matanzas, 1832 and again, Matanzas, 1836 according to Sabin. A good regional dictionary of "Lucayan words adopted into Spanish, with their meanings," Pilling. This edition much expanded over the second. "En ésta, como en la primera, su autor dió á la estampa 'una obra utilísima para conocer, más que de nombre, los términos que señalan animales, plantas, producciones é industrias de Cuba; donde prodiga, con la gracia peculiar de su estilo originalísimo sabrosas descripciones de nuestros usos y costumbres, y trata de corregir algunos de nuestros solecismos y dicciones viciosas, pero que bajo el aspecto lexicográfico era todavía un mero agregado de vocablos. Siempre será una obra consultada con fruto por cuantos deseen noticias de las cosas de Cuba,” (E.J. Varona). OCLC locates only two copies of this uncommon 1861 printing of the third edition, six of the second, and one of the first; of these only one, that of the 1861 edition, is in the United States, at the NYPL. $1200

First edition. A detailed geographical survey of Cuba with an enormous amount of data on topography, water resources, minerals, soil, climate, and natural history -the most complete at that time- undertaken by Esteban Pichardo Tapia (1799-1879), a noted geographer, poet, and lexicographer. Only three complete copies at auction in the last sixty years. A very good copy with chip to headband and minor scuff marks on spine, light foxing on title, leaves browned, first two parts with scattered pencil marginalia. [39697]

126. PINTO [GARMENDIA], ANIBAL. Discurso de S. E. El Presidente de la Republica al Congreso Nacional de 1878. Santiago: 1878. [3 pp.] on one folded leaf. Folio. (15 x 10 inches). Not in Palau.

First edition. Pinto's address to the congress notes the continuing border dispute with Argentina, the temporary takeover of some railroads, and the deteriorating trade and fiscal conditions. In a few months Chile would be at war with Peru and Bolivia over mining. Pinto (1825-1884) was president of Chile from 1876 to 1881. Neither OCLC nor any Latin American national libraries show copies of this item. A very good copy, a few tiny chips at the edges, slight split at fold. [38296]

127. POIRIER, EDUARDO. Chile en 1910. Edición del centenario de la independencia. Obra precedida de un estudio del señor don Marcial Martínez, acerca de la guerra de la independencia de Chile y de 20 monografías de las republicas americanas (1810-1910) y escornada con 1091 laminas. Santiago de Chile: Imprenta, Litografía y Encuadernación Barcelona, 1910. x, 460, 554 pp. Illus. with over 1,000 b/w photos, 1 color plate, 2 folding maps, 1 folding plan, 15 folding plates with photos, drawings, and graphs. Sm. 4to. Quarter morocco over marbled boards. Palau 230103. Griffin 5687.

$200

First edition. A good description of Chile at the time of its centenary of independence. Eduardo Poirier Toledo was a Chilean diplomat and writer who left the country after the Revolution of 1891 and represented Guatemala diplomatically. Spine is quite scuffed and worn, joints split but holding, boards a bit edgeworn, leaves browning, contents clean, and still about very good. [42080] decoration. Furlong IV: 3039. Zinny: Bibliografía histórica, No. 3, p.110-12. Fors: Imprenta de los Niños p.51. Registro Argentina, Vol. 1: 642. Not in Palau.

$1000

First edition. Posadas, who was the first Supreme Director of the United Provinces of Rio de la Plata, accused Colonel Jose Artigas (1764-1850) of treason for which he was sentenced to death. A reward of 6000 pesos is offered for his capture, dead or alive. Those of his troops and officers who did not surrender were to be declared traitors, judged by a military commission, and shot within 24 hours if found carrying weapons. Artigas was the leader of an independent band of rebels during the conflict with Spain, but his independence caused problems for the United Provinces leading to this call for his capture and execution, neither of which occurred due to his widespread popularity. Later Artigas would lead the war for Uruguayan independence against Argentina and became its first president. Scarce. OCLC locates only one copy at UC Berkeley. A very good copy, minor foxing and soiling, 2 marginal tape repairs not affecting text, in a near fine portfolio. [38764]

"GOING FURTHER THAN THE EYE CAN SEE"

130. RANNEY, EDWARD. Macchu Picchu Suite. New York: Limited Editions Club 1999. 3 lvs., 11 plates. Illus. with 11 photographs. Leaves 43.5 x 36 cm. (17 x14 1/4 inches). Publisher's velvet-lined green cloth clamshell box, inlaid brown morocco label titled in gilt on front board. $2250

First edition. One of 60 numbered sets (plus 14 proofs). Three leaves of letterpress and eleven photogravures, each numbered and signed by the photographer. Ten of the prints originally appeared Pablo Neruda's Heights of Macchu Picchu, (Limited Editions Club, 1998). Printed at the press of John Goodman Photogravure, on Arches cover. "Ranney belongs to a tradition of landscape photographers that includes Frederick Sommer, Paul Caponigro, Aaron Siskind, Wynn Bullock, and Minor White. What Ranney shares with this distinguished if loose-knit bunch is the resolve to make photographs whose meaning transcends what you see in the picture. Imagery is important for him, but only insofar as it conveys deeper, frequently spiritual themes and ideas. Mr. Ranney's photographs of Machu Picchu exemplify his efforts to make the medium speak of things beyond what you and I can see. Deceptively simple in appearance, pictures such as "Machu Picchu (Intihuatana)," 1971, and "Machu Picchu (Lower Machu Picchu and the Urubamba Valley)," 1975, strive to convey the intimate connections between Inca monuments and the awesome setting with its shapely mountain peaks. Photography, for Mr. Ranney, is all about capturing the character and natural flavor as much as the look of a place," Benjamin Gennochio, 'Going further than the eye can see,' The New York Times, March 13, 2003. OCLC locates only one copy at Univ. Texas, Austin). Box lightly rubbed else a fine copy. [41729]

First edition. Constable's Miscellany, Vol. XVII. Roberts was a British trader before independence, and describes much of the east coast of Central America. According to Bancroft "[it] is a little book descriptive of the author's journey up the San Juan River to Leon through Lake Nicaragua, and of trading voyages in which he was many years engaged among the Indians of Hond., Nic., and Costa R. His opportunities for observation seem to have been good, and his manner of setting forth the information thus obtained is clear and apparently reliable," (History of Central America, Vol. 3, pp. 247-8). A very good copy, boards worn, scattered foxing and offsetting, tiny tear at inner margin of map, binding tight. [38013]

133. RODÓ, JOSÉ ENRIQUE. Cinco ensayos. Montalvo, Ariel, Bolivar, Ruben Darío, Liberalismo y jacobinismo. Hugo D Barbagelata, intro. Madrid: Sociedad española de librería, [1915]. 414 pp. 12mo. Quarter morocco over marbled boards, gilt title and rules. Palau 272110 (citing different edition).

First edition. A revised and expanded version of the 1877 work with a slightly different title; Sabin and Pilling cite the shorter edition. Contains both an analysis of the parts of Nahuatl speech and a general discussion of its etymology, semantics, and grammar as well as specific usage in philosophy, literature, and religion. Wrappers worn, spine chipped, but still about very good. [39553]

136. SANZ, JUAN PABLO, ED. El Agrónomo. Periodico quincenal de agricultura i artes, para instruccion del pueblo. 1871 [all published]. Quito: Imprenta de Juan Pablo Sanz, 1871. 1 -30, 51-120 pp. 8vo. Disbound.

First edition. Issues 1 through 12 (lacking 4 & 5), comprising the half year, after which this biweekly agricultural and arts publication ceased production. Sanz described his magazine as "para inducir a nuestros amanerados agricultores a la explotacion de la hermosa y riquisima mina de positiva riqueza. hasta hoy los productos agricolas hablando estrictamente como ya hemos dicho otras veces, son espontaneos, no se abona, no se cultivara, y la tierra produce: si se cultivara con esmero y perfeccion, lque clase de productos arrojaría nuestro feraz, fertil y bendito suelo'." Each issue contained a small column of news of the world, usually about the Franco-Prussian, but also covering South America, followed by a list of commodity prices, then sections with articles, often running over a number of issues, on Agriculture, Botanical issues, Major Crops, Architecture, and Agricultural Economics. Scarce. We could locate no copies in OCLC or any major

South American or European Library databases, though a copy is listed in a compilation by P. Francisco Piñas of Pontificia Universidad Católica del Ecuador. Lacking later boards, old catalogue description taped, and small numeral stamped to lower margin of first issue, blanks bound in for issues 4 & 5, otherwise issues very good. [34035]

138. SCHOMBURGK, ROBERT HERMANN. Robert Hermann Schomburgk's Reisen in Guiana und am Orinoko. Während der Jahre 1835-1839. Nach seinen berichten und mittheilungen an die geographische gesellschaft in London. Mit einem Vorwort von Alexander von Humboldt. Leipzig: Herausgegeben O.A. [Otto Alfred] Schomburgk, Verlag Von Georg Wigand, 1841. xxiv, 510 pp. Illus. with 6 hand colored lithographic plates with tissue guards, 1 folding map, and one in-text drawing. Sm. 4to. Original quarter brown morocco over pebbled cloth boards, gilt decorated spine, silk bookmark sewn in. Sabin 77791. Cundall 1543a. Embacher 262. Henze V: pp. 78-84.

First edition. Robert Hermann Schomburgk (1804 -1865) was "[besides] Alex von Humboldt, the most important explorer of northern South America in the first half of the 19th century, the scientific discoverer British Guiana," (Dietmar Henze, 'Enzyklopädie der Entdecker und Erforscher der Erde,' [2004], Vol. V, pp.78-84). After having taught himself botany, geology, hydrology, and topography, and suggesting a scientific survey of British Guiana, Schomburgk was commissioned to complete it by the Royal Geographical Society. In three extensive trips between 1835 and 1839, Schomburgk surveyed the coasts, and the major rivers including the Essequibo, Corentyne, Rio Branco, Berbice, and Rupununi. His excellent maps formed the basis for the provisional boundary between British Guiana and Venezuela, known as the "Schomburgk Line", and the boundary with the Dutch colony of Surinam. He returned to Guiana with his brother, Richard, a botanist, in 1840, and they undertook the exploration of both the interior and the northwestern coastal region between Essequibo and Orinoco "With his exact latitudinal and longitudinal measurements and a dense network of barometric and temperature stations, Schomburgk established the foundations of the geological knowledge of the country, which was valid long after his death," (Heinz Peter Brogiato, in 'Germany and the Americas' [2005], Vol. I, pp. 947-8). ABPC and Americana Exchange show four copies at auction in the last fifty years. Provenance: Gustav Blass, dated 1852 (The firm of F. Blass & Schomburgk was involved in the Caribbean trade). A very good copy, spine scuffed, extremities worn especially at the tips, a few splits at the joints, contemporary owner's name on first blank, small tear at fore edge of title not affecting text, leaves foxed, plates brilliant, map offset in one section with fore edge a bit worn. A nice example of an uncommon title. [41538]

139. SEMPLE, ROBERT. Sketch of the Present State of Caracas; including a Journey from Caracas through La Victoria and Valencia to Puerto Cabello. London: Printed for Robert Baldwin, 1812. viii, 176 pp. 12mo. Modern quarter brown cloth over marbled boards, red morocco spine label titled in gilt. Palau 307445. Sabin 79088. Cundall 1306. LCP. Afro-Americana 9275. Naylor 92.

First edition. Covers not only Caracas and the Venezuelan War of Independence but also important chapters on Curaçao and the 8th West-Indian Black Regiment. Robert Semple

(1777-1816) was a merchant who traveled extensively in Africa, the Near East, South America, and Europe where his American birth gave him access to European countries from which the British were excluded during the Napoleonic Wars. Out of these journeys came a number of travel books between 1803 and 1814. After coming to the attention of Lord Selkirk, he was sent by him to govern his settlement on Red River in Upper Canada, where "he was murdered, not by the savages, but by his English brethren," Sabin. Four at auction in the last half century. A near fine copy, with only very occasional foxing. [39692]

Contemporary mottled calf, five raised bands, spine labels, compartments decorated in gilt, armorial gilt emboss on all boards.

Third French edition. Translation of Cortez: 'Historia de la conquista de Mexico' which was originally printed in Madrid in 1684, with the first French translation by S. de Broë, seigneur de Citry et de La Guette, following in 1691. This issue of the third French edition of 1704 is not recorded in any of the standard bibliographies including European Americana, Medina BHA, Palau, Sabin, nor Arocena, in his "Antonio de Solis. Cronista Indiano. Estudio sobre las formas historiográficas del Barroco," though he does mention Carpentier's 1714 printing. The John Carter Brown Library notes there were four identical printings in 1704: one by Jean & Michel Guignard, one by la Compagnie des Libraires, another by Charles Osmont, and another by Pierre Auboiün "all editions have same sheets, plates, and typography with reissued title pages." But they do not record this one, which is also identical. Includes all plates: 1. [Map] Mer Pacifique; 2. Rivière de Panuco autrement Rio de Canoas; 3. Isle de Cuba Port St. Jacques; 4. Vaisseaux de Cortez désagrés et échoués par ses ordres; 5. [Map] Environs du Lac de Mexique; 6. A. Tezcuco. B. La chaussée principale. C. Quitlavaca. D. Iztacpalapa. E. Mexico. F.

Strain (1821-1857), was a explorer and naval officer, who as a midshipman served in the West Indies and off the Brazilian coast. In 1843 he organized an expedition to the interior of Brazil with funding from the Academy of Natural Sciences in Philadelphia, was later assigned to patrol the waters off the west coast of Mexico during the Mexican War, and, still seeking further explorations, finally received permission to go ashore in Valparaiso where he proceeded across the continent to Buenos Aires, recording in this work his observations of the nearly year-long journey. He later served on the Mexican Boundary Commission and led a harrowing exploration of the Isthmus of Darien in search of a canal route. (See DAB, XVIII, p.122). Only one copy seen at auction in over half a century at Sotheby's Alberto Dodero sale in 1961. Provenance: Inscribed by the author to Edward B. Everett, most likely the son of Edward Everett, president of Harvard. A very good+ copy, spine sunned to medium brown, minor wear at tips. [39580]

First edition. Most of the Noticias concerns Ulloa's travels in Peru and Ecuador, including geography, antiquities, customs, language, and religion of the Indians, with the final six sections, comprising nearly 100 pages devoted to American Indians: "Of the Customs and Manners of the Native Indians;" "A Comparison of their peculiar Traits with those of other Nations;" "A Treatise on the Religion of the Aborigines;" "A Notice of the Antiquities discovered in the Country;" "An Account of some of the Writings of the Indians; and of some Figures in the Form of Idols; of the Language of the Indians, and the Manner in which these countries were peopled" (Field). "Ouvrage curieux et fort intéressant," (Le Clerc). Antonio de Ulloa y de la Torre-Girault (1716 -1795) was a colonial administrator, and the first Spanish governor of Louisiana though he was deposed in 1768 after two years, during a creole revolt. But he is most remembered for his writings and his scientific work especially as an astronomer. A copy of this work resided in Thomas Jefferson's Library. A very good copy, boards rubbed, inconspicuous groove to front board, wear to head of spine with tiny split at joint, occasional foxing, mostly marginal. A handsome example. [38640]
